

The Congressional Award

P.L. 96-114, The Congressional Award Act

November/December 2003 www.congressionalaward.org Vol. 9, No. 6

RECENT DISTRICT CEREMONIES

New Jersey- (below) In an August 21, 2003 ceremony, Congressman Mike Ferguson presented 5 New Jersey youth with Congressional Award Bronze and Silver Medals. The ceremony took place in his Martinsville office. Pictured here with the Congressman are Kristen Costa, Amanda Majewski, and twin sisters, Kate and Emily Warren. Missing from the photograph is Scott Kanuch. When asked of the efforts exerted by these young people, Ferguson stated, "The work these students have done is nothing short of remarkable...It's always a pleasure for me to see such exceptional young people who know what it means to be good citizens."

California- (above) On October 10, 2003, Congresswoman Lucille Roybal-Allard congratulated six current and former students at Belmont High School in Los Angeles. She described these students as "...potential role models for their peers and excellent examples of young people who, by doing the right thing, are making a difference."  (below) Congressman George Radanovich presented Patrick Fortune with The Congressional Award Bronze Medal at an August 19, 2003 ceremony. The ceremony took place at Radanovich's District Office in Fresno.

Virginia- (left) Congressman Eric Cantor recently recognized a group of individuals from his district in an October 21, 2003 ceremony in Washington, D.C. at the Capitol Building. Pictured here is Christina Godfrey receiving her Bronze Medal.

Please email sandeen@congressionalaward.org if there is anything you would like to see in the next newsletter.