

The Congressional Award

Public Law 96-114, The Congressional Award Act

November/December 2004

www.congressionalaward.org

Vol. 10, No. 6

On September 25, 2004 Congressman Lee Terry (NE-02) presented John Yates with a Bronze Congressional Medal. From left to right are John's sister, father, Congressman Terry, John Yates and his mother.

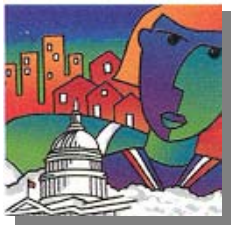

Congratulations to all Medal Recipients!!

Hail & Farewell

Adam Drucker has joined the Congressional Award as the Program Coordinator for the southeast region. Chris Pencikowski, Program Coordinator for the northeast region, has left the Award. He will be greatly missed. Welcome Adam! Farewell Chris!

On March 31, 2004 Congressman Vic Snyder (AR-02) presented the Congressional Award Bronze Medal to Jennifer Lynn Crawley of Little Rock. Congressman Snyder presented the award in Washington D.C.

Congresswoman Jo Ann Davis (VA-01) awarded Zane Shuck of Poquoson the Silver and Bronze Congressional Awards on October 22, 2004 in her Yorktown Office.

In December 2004, Arin Lastufka received a Silver Congressional Medal from Congressman Frost (TX-24) in Dallas. One of her accomplishments while working toward her Silver Medal included writing a paper on the different styles of martial arts.

Danielle McLaughlin received a Bronze Congressional Medal on August 8, 2004. The medal was presented by Congressman Vito Fossella (NY-13) in his Eltingville office. Danielle volunteered extensively with Protectors of Pine Oak Woods, Staten Island Friends for Hospice, and the New York City Parks Department.

Send us your story

If you would like to share the experience about receiving your Congressional Award, please send us your story. Stories and pictures can be sent to information@congressionalaward.org. We look forward to hearing back from you. Take Care!

Jeff Lyon received the Congressional Bronze Medal from Congressman Henry A. Waxman (CA-30) on October 18, 2004 at the Congressman's office in Los Angeles. This was Waxman's first ever presentation of the Congressional Award. From left to right are Jeff Lyon, Congressman Waxman, and Jeff's father Doug.

Voluntary Public Service * Personal Development * Physical Fitness * Expedition/Exploration